It is rather discouraging to the manager of a theatre to present such a distinguished actor as Harry Beresford, supported by his excellent company, and have such a small audience to witness the play as was present at the Academy last evening. There was a better attendance this evening, when Miss Elizabeth Kennedy, the young Atlanta actress appeared as "Rosalind," in "As You Like it."

The members of the Literary Club and their friends are looking forward with much pleasure to the lectures to be delivered by Dr. S. C. Mitchell, in this city, October 16th, 23d, 30th, under the auspices of the "Young Ladies' Literary Club." Mirabeau, Robespierre and Napoleon will be the special subjects.

"GLOOMY VIEW.

Some of the commission merchants in this city are disposed to take a rather gloomy view of the crop situations in the counties near Petersburg. From the reports of the farmers, the crops will be short and especially will this be true of peanuts. There are very few peanuts on hand in Petersburg, fewer than there has been for many years. New nuts are coming in but very slowly. The tobacco crop will probably not be as short in proportion as the peanut crop.
